

What do the 1989 invasion of Panama, the 2003 US invasion of Iraq, and the 2005 Katrina disaster have in common?

SOLDIERS SPEAK OUT

North American Premiere

A first-hand testament to the reality of the military experience told entirely in the words of American veterans who have been to war and are now opposing it. This half-hour documentary serves as a counter-recruitment and organizing tool for activists, schools, and organizations.

THE PANAMA DECEPTION

1993 Oscar, Best Documentary Feature

A riveting critique of the government's history of militarization, made all the more timely by the current war on terrorism. This is the untold story of the 1989 US invasion of Panama, the shocking events of the assault, the true motivation for the invasion, and a look at how and why the mainstream media collaborated with the US government to censor information and deceive the American public. This film exposes a pattern of inhumane actions by members of the current administration. Are they acceptable? Are they impeachable?
