

WAGING PEACE IN A GLOBAL WORLD

a lecture by Oscar winning filmmaker, former welfare mother, seasoned activist, and trailblazer for change

BARBARA TRENT

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 7:00 P.M., FREE
SPEIGHT AUDITORIUM, JENKINS FINE ARTS CENTER

Ms. Trent will discuss current events, activism, the role of media, and the responsibility and power we each have to create change. She will discuss the interconnections between our unravelling ecosystem, our failing economy, and our reliance on war in a time when only peace and justice can sustain us.

Drawing on nearly a half century of experience as a grassroots organizer, activist, and filmmaker, Academy Award winner Barbara Trent brings a rare approach to today's events. Her presentation is graced with the emotion of a woman who has seen the front lines here and abroad. Footage from some of her recent films will accompany her comments.

Individuals requesting accommodation under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) should contact the Department for Disability Support Services at least 48 hours prior to the event at 252-737-1016 (voice/TTY).

