I just can't imagine what these kids think now... the day the Americans came and shot up our village.

—Charlie Anderson

It was all a con. It was all a game and I fell for it.

—Ed Boyd

...if all you find is lies, then how do you justify to yourself being part of that war?

—Camilo Mejia

All wars eventually turn into race wars. If you've gotta kill them, then you've gotta strip away their humanity.

—Stan Goff

Before I left Iraq, I was thinking, "I'm not going to tell anybody what I saw here."

—Shanell Thomas

We're stolen from our lives in order to become a soldier, and a lot of people never recover from it.

—Ralph Baldwin

People at home don't see the coffins coming home, the funerals, the amputees, the bum victims.

—Kelly Dougherty

When a thousand soldiers say, "I'm not obeying your orders," that's a mutiny!

—Dennis Kyne

Soldiers Speak Out, is a half-hour documentary that sheds light on the growing anti-war movement within the U.S. military. Barbara Trent, the Academy Award-winning producer of the film, and representatives from the American Friends Service Committee will be in attendance and lead a discussion afterwards.

The second film is entitled Is War the Answer? New Yorkers Respond to 9/11. It covers the response of New Yorkers to the events of September 11. It runs approximately 40 minutes and is quite haunting and beautiful.
