

1st United Nations Association Film Festival Traveling Film Festival Durham

Saturday, 30 September, 2006

at Duke University

1.15 pm to 10 pm

Richard White Auditorium

East Campus

free and open to the public

Global Voices of Hope and Courage

A unique festival showing seven documentaries including the Academy award winning "Panama Deception" and Academy nominated film "God Sleeps in Rwanda" that deal with prevailing socio-economic and political issues and celebrating the efforts of documentary filmmakers to fight for dignity and justice for all persons around the world.

www.unaff.org

Established nine years ago at Stanford University by film critic and educator Jasmina Bojic in conjunction with the fiftieth anniversary of the signing of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the UNA Film festival screens documentaries by international filmmakers dealing with topics such as human rights, environmental survival, women's issues, children, refugee protection, homelessness, racism, disease control, universal education, war and peace. By bringing together filmmakers, the academic community and the general public, UNAFF offers a unique opportunity for creative exchange and education among groups and individuals often separated by geography, ethnicity and economic constraints.

Sponsors : UNA West Triangle Chapter • Duke Center for International Development
Duke Film/Video/Digital Program • Duke Program in Women's Studies • Hart Leadership Program
Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Klemmer • Rotary Center for International Studies in Peace and Conflict Resolution

For more information about film schedule, go to www.una-westtriangle.org